Training Terms and Conditions

Booking Terms & Conditions:

1. Cancellation Policy

If you cancel your training booking (for one or more tickets) more than 5 days before the training we will offer a full refund of the ticket price. If you cancel your booking between 3 and 5 days before the event start date we will offer a 50% refund. We cannot offer any refund if bookings are cancelled less than 3 days before the training date.

Full or partial refunds do not include the cost of the Eventbrite platform booking fee as this is held by Eventbrite in the case of cancellations and we cannot refund this.

2. Alternative Payment Methods

If you cannot pay through the Eventbrite platform, it is possible for us to invoice to a business address for the cost of training. You will need to send an email requesting this to training@1625ip.co.uk including the title and dates of the course, the number of tickets required, participants names, your organisations full address and contact person for invoicing, and a PO number if required.

This will incur an additional admin charge which is 15% of the final invoice cost, which will be added to the invoice. All invoices must be paid in advance of the training start date.

3. Intellectual Property

1625 Independent People and Golden Key hold intellectual property rights over all training resources (including slides, handouts, reports, videos and audio files) used as part of a training session, except for where otherwise indicated (for example books, handouts or other materials where the copyright is not held by 1625 Independent People).
